

Golden Palace is the Belgian market leader with 40 Gaming Halls in Belgium. Being the first 100% Belgian and 100% legal operator with a B+ licence since April 1 2012, the Golden Palace Group expanded their offering with a legal and licensed online website, offering casino-games & sports betting to its players. In order to support the growth and development of our online business in the territory, we are currently looking for a bilingual:

Business / Functional Analyst

About the job:

Golden Palace is a Belgian leading group in the entertainment and gaming industry. In order to support the growth and development of our online business in the territory, we are currently looking for a Business /Functional Analyst with good IT skills.

In this new position, you will be the link between business and development.

Responsibilities

- Translate business needs into clear processes and scenarios
- Provide recommendations in order to elaborate wireframes and designs
- Based on the business demands, write the business requirements documentation
- Collaborate with IT department to make sure that recommendations can be implemented
- Work in collaboration with project managers and ensure the consistency with existing developments.
- Test new implementation, report bugs and validate alignment with business needs
- Support user acceptance tests
- Able to analyse incidents and hands these over the development team
- Train business to use the new tools properly

Requirements:

- Bachelor or master degree + 5 years of experience in functional analysis
- Excellent understanding of the digital environment (technical and e-marketing). Able to translate business needs into processes
- Excellent organizational and communication skills
- Deadlines focus
- Team player but able to work independently
- English. French and/or Dutch would be a plus.

About the compensation package:

- A fulltime unlimited contract
- An exciting and various job in a young and dynamical team
- An attractive and competitive wage package, with several benefits according to the function (group insurance, hospitalization insurance...)